Euromed Heritage

Enhancing mutual understanding and dialogue between people in the Mediterranean region

The Euromed Heritage programme enhances cultural heritage and provides a framework for exchanges of experience, channels for disseminating best practices as well as new perspectives for the development of the cultural institutional environment at national and regional levels.

Euromed Heritage embraces tangible and intangible cultural heritage issues such as Archives, Audiovisuals & Manuscripts, Archaeology, Conservation & Rehabilitation, Cultural Tourism, Museums, Exhibitions, Norms, Legislation & Inventories...

Euromed Heritage IV (2008-2011) aims for the appropriation by Mediterranean people of their own national and regional cultural legacy through easier access to education and knowledge on cultural heritage.

News and events on tangible and intangible cultural heritage in the Euromed zone, regional cultural heritage major events, publications and technical data, activities and results from projects, stories from the field, interviews with stakeholders, lessons learned and much more: the Euromed Heritage website provides detailed information on activities and achievements at
