PRESS RELEASE

Winners of the EUROMED HERITAGE Journalistic Award 2007

In collaboration with UNESCO, the International Federation of Journalists and with the special participation of ANSAMED.

The EC EuropeAid and the Jury of the Journalistic Award are pleased to announce the winners of the EUROMED HERITAGE Journalistic Award 2007.

Winners of the Euromed Heritage Journalistic Award 2007 are Mr. Tarek Hafid (Algeria), for his article "Si la Grande Poste nous était contée", Le Soir d'Algérie, 7 August 2006, and Ms. Susana Moreira Marque (Portugal), for her article "Adio Kerida", Publica, 24 December 2006.

A Special mention of the Jury goes to Mr. Mourad Slimani (Algeria), for his article "Le fort Gouraya réclame justice", El Watan, 13 August 2006. Winner of the Ansamed special prize is Mr. Mohammed El Hamroui (Morocco), for his article "Remous autour d'un patrimoine historique", Le Reporter, 4 May 2006.

The EUROMED HERITAGE Journalistic Award is an international press competition dealing with the preservation and promotion of cultural heritage. The competition, organized by the European Commission, via the Regional Management and Support Unit (RMSU) of the EUROMED HERITAGE Programme and is open to journalists from EU and Mediterranean partner countries. The winning articles will soon be available online.
